

Wine List

Every year I travel to Italy in search of the perfect wines for my customers. Wines that offer great taste, but also good value for money.

It is my belief that wine is the perfect compliment to a good meal, and for this reason I have developed a wine list that offers my customers a wide range of wines from all over Italy, France, and new world countries.

One of my recent discoveries is Fantozzi's very own house wine – which offer good value for money, without losing the quality and taste of some of the finest grapes from the single vineyards of southern Italy.
